FIRST OFF... We sadly say goodbye to Todd who closed his restaurant The Ninth Street Market earlier this month. Being one of the first of the new wave of business owners to 9th Street, he initially met some resistance from the old guard but eventually won people over by being a friendly, helpful presence on the street. When we had the blackout a few years back, he brought out all his food and started barbecuing for anyone who wanted some. That's neighborhood. Godspeed brother, and don't forget to write. To everyone else, stay cool, Support your local vendors when you can, and keep the community strong, vital and real.

TOM PETTY..... HIGHWAY COMPANION This disc came out a while ago and it took some time to grow on me, but it's a good ride. Like the title states, this is a disc that you would take along on a long ride, when you have time to stop and see the sites as you please. It moves along with clear guitars and concise lyrics which deal with the state of the country (Saving Grace), coming to grips with self identity (Square One) and just blowing it out (Big Weekend). Before you know it, you're humming the melodies. I give it 3 bones. See you next time on the corner....

Closing Statement: "The most pathetic person in the world is someone who has sight but has no vision." - Helen Keller
